

CLEAN VERSION OF REWRITTEN OR ADDED CLAIMS
PURSUANT TO 37 CFR § 1.21 (c)(1)(i)

A4 1. A method of treating migraines, comprising:
SUB B1
a) providing i) a patient having one or more symptoms of a migraine and ii) a formulation consisting of one active ingredient and one or more inactive ingredients, wherein said active ingredient is dihydroergotamine;

b) administering said formulation to said patient sublingually under conditions such that said one or more symptoms of said migraine are reduced.

A2 9. A method of treating migraines, comprising:
a) providing i) a patient having one or more symptoms of a migraine and ii) a formulation consisting of first and second active ingredients and one or more inactive ingredients, wherein said first active ingredient is dihydroergotamine and said second active ingredient is selected from the group consisting of analgesics and anesthetics;

b) administering said formulation to said patient sublingually under conditions such that said one or more symptoms of said migraine are reduced.

A3 13. The method of Claim 1, wherein one of said inactive ingredients is an effervescent agent.

14. The method of Claim 1, wherein one of said inactive ingredients is an pH adjusting agent.

A4 15. A method of treating migraines, comprising:
a) providing i) a patient having one or more symptoms of a migraine and ii) a fast dissolve formulation consisting of one active ingredient and one or more inactive ingredients, wherein said active ingredient is dihydroergotamine one of said inactive ingredients is a pH adjusting agent;

b) administering said formulation to said patient sublingually under conditions such that said one or more symptoms of said migraine are reduced.